the four works included in this collection have enjoyed a rather chequered career they originally formed the second volume of the doctoral thesis michael aris submitted in 1978 to the university of london they have been included because of their value as crucial source material on the formative era of bhutanese history as they cover the entire period leading to the full emergence of the bhutanese theocracy their relative brevity as compared with the other major works relevant to this period further suggested the convenience of including them as a group of inter related minor texts while the first two works in this collection have never before been available to modern scholars and are indeed hardly known even in bhutan the next two which include a text translated from portuguese have been partially known from the works of john claud white sikkim and bhutan twenty one years on the north east frontier 1887 1908 london and c wessels early jesuit travelers in central asia the hague 1924
